

Escape for a relaxing break away to Muckross Park Hotel & Spa and witness the arrival of spring to Killarney National Park.

As the frost begins to melt away and the spring blossoms begin to bloom in Killarney National Park, Muckross Park Hotel & Spa have the ultimate spring escape to celebrate the arrival of longer days with the Spring in Killarney package.

Set in the spectacular landscape of Killarney National Park, just outside Killarney town centre, Spring in Killarney at Muckross Park Hotel & Spa offers guests a two or three night stay with breakfast each morning, a four course dinner in the award-winning Yew Tree Restaurant on one evening of your stay, a welcome drink for two in Monk's Bar and complimentary use of the Vitality Suite in The Spa at Muckross.

For those who would love to explore the beauty of Killarney National Park at springtime, stay for three nights and avail of the hotel's complimentary bike hire before enjoying a fully guided tour of Muckross House and Gardens. After your tour, relax and unwind in the serene settings of the luxury hotel with Afternoon Tea by the fire before enjoying a leisurely evening stroll taking in the stunning scenery of Killarney's National Park.

No escape to The Kingdom would be complete without a little relaxation, so why not take some time and chill out in the Vitality Suite at The Spa at Muckross and relax in the herbal sauna, vitality pool, thermal loungers and outdoor hot tub.

To celebrate the re-opening of the hotel after the winter period, Muckross Park Hotel & Spa are also offering guests a free breakfast, €10 dining credit per person and 10% off bar drinks when booking a 2 night stay in The Reserve self-catering apartments between the 12th January until the 31st March.

Just 4km from Killarney town centre, the five-star Muckross Park Hotel & Spa is a landmark on the ring of Kerry, close to the Wild Atlantic Way and offers the perfect escape this spring.
